Custo®, innovative and tasteful design. A feast for the eyes.

David De Schryver
Product designer

Recognize the Custo® design in a second.

When I was asked to design a new generation of mailboxes, I was immediately triggered. As a furniture and interior designer, a parcel box had to be a discreet element that you walk by every day without being noticed. At the same time, the design had to be distinctive, attractive and recognizable as a brand.

The design can be described as sober, with a techy feel and beautifully detailed. The technology behind the box is very complex, but the design language is pure and simple. It was a challenge to transform this idea into a user-friendly and easy-to-produce object.
